

WILD WEST

MARCH 2022
VILLAGE EDITION

C Mt. Carmel Connections

Saddle Up Your Horses

When television first became popular around 1950, TV westerns were an audience favorite. It's difficult to say if the flurry of western movies perpetuated the American romance with the wild west, or if our infatuation with the old west fueled the movie industry. What is certain is that we love the stories of adventure and opportunity that come from this era of our nation's history. As we get ready to Mosey Through March at Mt. Carmel Community at The Village, we have rustled up a few of your favorite classic western movies. Every Monday afternoon this month we'll be having a Western Movie Matinee in our theater. We'll also explore TV westerns by featuring their titles in a "TV Westerns" edition of Wheel of Fortune. In keeping with our theme, our other Monday morning Wheel of Fortune games will explore horse idioms, cattle drive phrases, and cowboy song titles. We'll bring you a variety of cowboy-themed games that involve strategy, luck, or knowledge of the old west when we play Cowboy Connect Four, Cowboy Roll & Cover, and a special Cowboy version of "What is It?". We'll tip our hats to the wranglers of the wild west with a Cattle Brand Match Game. Join us for a little suspense and a lot of fun at High Noon Hangman. Collect your bounty by guessing the correct letters that reveal the name of a western character before a gallows and stick man can be constructed. Round up a few of your friends and join us for a month of adventure as Mt. Carmel Community at The Village heads west this March!
